Scale How,
Ambleside.

Nov. 11. 1921

Dearest!

Prof. de Buregh comes tomorrow so I scribble by the postlock & send you a scrappy answer.

The Bible Reading Book will go into all ^{your} ~~classes~~ - II-VI - for "Sunday & Private Reading".

Mr. Household did not say much but thanked me for letting him see

Wm. Franklin's very interesting report: If I have kept the letters I will send it -

6th & 8th - is an improvement & will give the children the chance of doing their play for you! & for me. Let's really feel there is time to say how do you do?

Course for Teachers - I am with you entirely - all your arguments I agree with perhaps a little because

Scale How,

Ambleside.

The same thing was in my own mind. We have a big thing & must hold it. As for this reading, if they become members they have as you say the library & advice.

The action of the Income Tax people is a great help to us. It makes, what ^{otherwise} might seem a charlatic refusal, insistent upon us.: No certainly I shall not publish the letter in?

Conference - - What a brilliant idea! I to feel sadly out of touch with our committees + please me 'am, most emphatically you must come while I am here.

I hope you will let me say things, & anyway I want to meet our friends.
- I hope we may all turn with the same great purpose. + go forth conquering.

I want you to see & hear everything & where we meet we shall talk out plans.

Your sentence - "We do risk the whole thing to be really "Yours" - comforts me greatly.
We shall not waste our time in futile discussion but - shall really go on

+ drive forward what is full of saving grace for the world. You know, dearest, I shall be eighty when you come in & I want to leave a body of enthusiasts who I go who know that we have found practically all we want in education.
 No doubt, Mr. Parish & the staff would do it capitally, & it is sweet of You to put it - like that just to save me! But just think how it would hurt to have you all here and not to meet you?

Whitman's world is a lovely time - but we can talk about that when we meet.

It will be delightful to see you talk about everything. ever your loving Chr.

22. 11. - 21.

Dearest!

How good it will be to let you - show me many things there on the 11th. - which I think will have to wait - till you come.

Meanwhile - don't let you come to get a date for the Conf. - I'm a little afraid that the old students might not like the amalgamation.

Scale How,
Ambleside.

too much Mr. W. Lewis I know of two first rate men - one a Balliol Ox.
Army coachman & much besides - Lecturer at Hef colleges - to come here for three weeks & do the job. Do get to know them before you come (Leeds?) & tell me all about them.
Mr. Fry, tells me he is keen on educational reforms. + I dare say it is Mr. Westminster!

Also, what about Mr. - forget his name - the Director of Ed. for Ceylon - whose letter I sent you - It would be just to send a pattern colony. like Glasgow.

How splendid about Oxford - I am indeed delighted - we want to get at the man - the WEA gives such poor little hypothesis of knowledge - the doc is too small & too specialised

Scale How,
Ambleside.

Many thanks for Pop Lit^{ships}.
 No - they don't just do it. also for the Vestminter - wh. we shall take next-yr.
 I was delighted to know. it had become a moment paper.
 And - and - a house things is just by it next week is so - dear dear love -

Chrs.

Sent me your love.

for notes when it comes out.

necessary by any 'welly' work. I can be arranged, but we shall be able

I miss you to do I cannot
to P. M.
I had heard

I look on with you + all with a of things

This is rather a not only that we shall miss you but the cause. Please keep me informed. you know a burnt child dreads the fire + I shall year had things if you not get some one to write to me at once. & at twice!

I take your word Dear, much disappointed.

Yours C. M.

+ don't really think it is anything serious, but let me know.

And the poor dear Juniors who have been working at a play for you - think how disappointed they will be - + I, who wanted to show you our new house & everything + everything else!

Of course we would not like you to fix up Cyril's but all goes well & happily + you will be rejoiced to know that we are full for next year. you know 40 is our limit + I have no desire to exceed it.

At I am glad all is going well in Whitley - a charming place. We cannot put anything in the new yr programme - beyond Miss Parich's, not because they are done. + a good deal of "researches and" will be

Scale How.

21st birthday party! That would be outrageous. & assuredly you would not do it! - Come must just wait till February & hope rather anxiously that the Paris trip may come off with great joy.

Michael's last poem has not reached me & now he has written another - Do keep me up!

We are very busy

Dec. 4 - 1921

My dearest

How good that you are coming to us on Tuesday!

I'm afraid you will feel it rather a rush as there are always many things to be done at the end of term - but you will not.

mind.

I have not been able to think of the things as I shall have to talk over but that does not matter - we shall do it on the spur of the moment:

You will tell me family news & school news when you can & I will tell you our news.

Scale Hoiv,

Ambleside.

Which we shall you know be glad to have.

We have found you quite a lot of books for the library - chiefly educational but - probably you will reject a number of them.

We usually clear out the books of the year at this time - James presents for the children - & alas, get hardly any additions for the Students' Library.

I feel quite set up because ~~two or three~~ three 3 week ago Brown & I saw two ~~red~~ wax-wings - with their crests standing up like the head of a Scandinavian peasant woman.

I have been hurrying to get through things before you come so can't write you more than one word of dear welcome.
ever yours C.M.
